OF 20 SUITS AND
MUCH MERCHANDISE*Robbers Smash Rear Window and Ransack Store-room During Night.*LOOT CARTED AWAY IN WAGON*Dozen Pairs of Shoes, a Dozen Blouses, Socks and Miscellaneous Articles Missing When Proprietor Opens Place This Morning; No Clue.

The dry goods store of S. M. Levy on Main street was entered during the night and robbed of 20 suits of clothes, a dozen pairs of shoes, rings, stockings and a quantity of miscellaneous articles. The robbery was committed some time between 8.30 o'clock last night when Mr. Levy left the store, and 3 o'clock this morning.

From the quantity of goods taken, it is thought that the robbers must have used a wagon to cart away the loot. Absolutely no clue that might lead to their identity and capture was left.

The rear of the store is surrounded by a fence, the gate of which was locked. Breaking the lock, the intruders gained entrance to the rear of the store and entered the store-room. Falling in this they tore the shutters off the door. Then breaking the glass the robbers reached in and unlocked the door from the inside.

Mr. Levy had received a new shipment of stock recently and the robbers helped themselves generally.

Two dozen fresh eggs which Mr. Levy had forgotten to take home with him, however, were overlooked.

MINERS CONFER AGAINOhio Workers Demand the Cause of Displacement.

CINCINNATI, March 25.—Members of the Ohio Miners' Association met today in an attempt to outline a plan for a settlement of the wage dispute between the soft coal miners and operators of Western Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois.

The joint wage conference between the miners and operators commenced yesterday when no settlement was reached after a week of discussion. Although the existing wage scale expires April 1, both the miners and operators insist that the possibility of a strike is remote.

Demand of the Ohio miners are said to have been the cause of disagreement in the conference. The Ohio Miners' Association has presented a law providing the nine per cent of payment. Under it the Ohio miners wanted the wage scale changed to a seven per cent and a six per cent increase in pay. The operators objected to this change.

PENNSY LINES WEST REDUCE DIVIDENDS; EARNINGS DROP*Extraordinary Replacement Charges, Due to Last Year's Floods, and Slack Traffic Are Blamed; Surplus Fund Is Drawn Upon.

By Associated Press.
PHILADELPHIA, March 25.—(D.)—The directors of the Pennsylvania lines west of Pittsburgh, today reduced the dividend on common stock from five to three per cent and on the preferred stock from five to four per cent.

In connection with the announcement, President Ties of the Pennsylvania lines made the following statement: "The directors of the Pennsylvania lines, Chicago & St. Louis railway, today reduced the dividend on common stock from five to three per cent and on the preferred stock from five to four per cent.

The report shows an increase of $4,000,000 in operating and maintenance expenses which includes the extraordinary outlay for replacement of tracks and bridges destroyed or damaged by the floods of March, 1913, so that after paying its fixed charges and appropriations to sinking and other reserve funds, there remained only $630,000 as applicable for dividends.

"The company, however, paid its regular five per cent on its preferred and common stocks aggregating $3,235,642, but in order to meet the same had to utilize in large part its surplus income from previous years. In view of the decline in the gross and net revenue of the company in the latter part of 1913 and so far in the present year and as there are still large expenditures to be made in the current year for the flood damage of 1913, the directors deemed it prudent to reduce the dividend and there are declared one per cent on the preferred and three-fourths of one per cent on the common for the first quarter of the fiscal year or at the rate of four per cent annum for the preferred and three per cent for the common.

"The directors also declared a five per cent dividend in each class in recent years."

UNIONTOWN, March 25.—The case of Lafayette Hotel and others for $10,000 in trial in Uniontown.

In the case in which H. J. Rosoff, a Connelville tailor and Mrs. William Dull, wife of the proprietor of the Arlington Hotel for $60 alleged to be due him for a suit which he made for her and which she refused to accept, the jury found for the defendant.

Mrs. Dull contended that the suit did not fit her and to support her claim she produced a waiting room and showed the suit to exhibit to the jury. After a short deliberation a verdict was returned in favor of Mrs. Dull.

In the case of U. L. Snowden of Brownsville against Attorney G. C. Carter of Brownsville for $125 alleged to be due for rent of an office owned by the plaintiff was decided in favor of the defendant.

The plaintiff alleged that Carter rented the room, which adjoined his law office, in order to prevent a verdict when no settlement was reached after a week of discussion. YOUNG ITALIAN PROBABLY FATALLY SLASHED BY NEGRO*Bill Tolliver Draws Knife When Joe Giacari Refuses to Get Off the Sidewalk; Victim Is in Critical Condition.

While passing the St. James Hotel today at noon Joe Giacari, an Italian aged 21 years, was slashed in the abdomen by William Tolliver, a negro, in a critical condition.

Giacari had been in this country about six months and was not familiar with the English language. He had been residing at Nellie and accompanied by his cousin came to Connelville this morning and was walking quietly along when Tolliver pushed him, telling him to move off the sidewalk. Giacari not understanding the English language paid no attention to Tolliver's remarks.

Tolliver, who was intoxicated, became angry at the Italian, pulled a knife from his pocket and slashed Giacari, the blade entering his abdomen. Tolliver then made a dash down street but was captured by Constable Matthew Mondan and taken to the police station pending a hearing.

In the meantime Dr. Gallagher who happened to be passing, gave temporary assistance to the wounded man while Patrolman Thomas McDonald summoned the ambulance to have him conveyed to the hospital.

Tolliver is declared to have been in an ugly mood all day, the amount of drink he had consumed during the morning having made him pugnacious. Hence he seized upon the opportunity to vent his wrath on the inoffensive Italian.

The injured man was taken to the hospital where it was stated his condition was serious. Tolliver was born and reared at Davidson and is a coke drawer. He was 37 years old.

LAST COKE DRAWN AT VALLEY WORKS;
PLANT ABANDONED*Largest of the Broad Ford Branch Operations Now Dead.*LANDMARK OF THE EARLY DAYS*For 45 Years the Operation Was One of the Most Important in the Connelville Coke Region; Store Will Soon Be Closed; Veterans Shifted.

The Valley works of the H. C. Frick Coke Company was yesterday formally abandoned and wiped off the map as an operation. The coal has been exhausted and there is little possibility of the coking situation causing a condition that will entail firing the ovens at some time to turn coal shipped from elsewhere. Valley is through, and more than one veteran of the big coke company have a sigh as he heard the news.

A pull of darkness has hovered over the plant which for years has been one of the sights of iron trolley riders on the West Penn between Scottsdale and Connelville. Valley's ovens lighted the hollow for miles, and travelers always saw something of interest in the sight, no matter how many times they had viewed it before.

Workers will be engaged for a few days cleaning up the yards and giving the old plant a decent burial, as it were. Signs of activity have departed. General Superintendent W. H. Clingerman and Superintendent James Lynch, who had charge of the Broad Ford valley operations, scratched Valley off the map yesterday afternoon. All of the horses and mules but four have been shipped to other plants in the region. Many of them had never worked in any other mine. The store of the Union Supply Company will be closed in about a week. Store Manager M. L. Hayes, who lives in Scottsdale, has been transferred to the Central store, where he will be the manager.

Other changes have also been made. Mine Foreman Edward Quinn goes to Broad Ford, it is said. For years he has been a leading citizen of Exorton and for a long time teacher of the Scottsdale Young Men's Christian association mining classes. He also served a number of times on the ex-mining board of the valley. He succeeded the late James Jackson at Valley.

Valley works was built 45 years ago. It was the first plant constructed at the north end of Morgan valley after the Broad Ford operations had been started. The initial plant was built by Wilson, Boyle & Playford, composed of J. W. Alphonse, H. C. Frick, Charles E. Boyle and William H. Playford. The contractor was the late Christian Snyder of Connelville.

BURNS AND SHOCK
COMBINE TO CAUSE
DEATH OF MRS. COOK*Aged Woman Whose Clothes Caught Fire at Gas Stove Passes Away.*WAS RECOVERING FROM ILLNESS*Deceased Had Had Pneumonia and Her Weakened Condition and Her Awful Experience Both Helped.

Burns suffered yesterday morning when her clothing ignited from a gas stove in the bath room resulted in the death of Mrs. Alice W. Cook this morning at 1.15 o'clock at her home in East Cedar avenue.

Mrs. Cook had been in poor health for some time and was recovering from an illness from pneumonia. Although her body was severely burned, part of her hair burned, and there were several slight burns on her face, it was stated by the attending physician that she did not inhale any of the flames. Her weakened condition and the shock from the burns caused her death.

On hearing the screams of Mrs. Cook the maid hastened to her assistance and succeeded in extinguishing the flames. Her husband, Harry Cook, master of the Dunbar Furnace Company, and a physician were immediately summoned, and despite the efforts made to relieve the woman of her suffering and to save her life, death resulted. Funeral services will be held from the family residence tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. Rev. J. L. Prosser, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, will officiate. Later will be private in Hill Grove cemetery.

Mrs. Cook was one of the best known and highly respected residents of Connelville and her tragic death came as a great shock to her relatives and many friends.

She was 64 years old and was born in Philadelphia, where she spent her childhood. Her maiden name was Mrs. Alice Cooper. She married Harry Cook about 25 years ago and with her family came to Connelville. They moved to Connelville about 10 years ago and have resided here since.

Mrs. Cook was a member of the Episcopal Church and in addition to her husband is survived by the following children: Mrs. John Curtis, Mrs. Adolph Gordon, Philadelphia; J. P. Gordon, Pittsburgh; Mrs. Harriet May, wife of Attorney H. G. May; James H. Cook of Connelville; and Benjamin C. Cook of South Park, Pa.

TURN HAIR DARK WITH SAGE TEA

It Mixed With Sulphur It Darkens So Naturally Nobody Can Tell.
 The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grand mother's treatment and folks are again using it to keep their hair in good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.
 Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering this sage and the messy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product called "Violette" Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy for about 50 cents a bottle. It is very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time by running the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Violette's Sage and Sulphur is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft lustre and appearance of abundance which is so attractive, besides, prevents dandruff, itching scalp and falling hair.—Adv.

Facts in Nature
 FOR centuries it has been known that Nature's most valuable health giving agents for the cure of disease are found in our American forests. Over forty years ago Dr. R. V. Pierce, chief consulting physician to the "Invalids" Hotel and Surgical Institute at Buffalo, N. Y., used the powdered extracts as well as the extracts of native medicinal plants, such as bloodroot and Queen's root, Golden Seal and Stone root, Cherry bark and Mandarin, for the cure of blood disease. This prescription has put up in liquid form was called and has enjoyed a large sale for all these years in every drug store in the land. You now obtain the powdered extract in sugar-coated tablet form of your medicine dealer, or send 50c in one-cent postage stamps for trial box to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., and tablets will be mailed, postage prepaid.
DR. PIERCE'S Golden Medical Discovery
 The "Golden Medical Discovery" makes rich, red blood, invigorates the stomach, liver and bowels and through them, the whole system. Skin affections, blotches, boils, pimples and eruptions—result of bad blood—are eradicated by this alternative extract—no thousands have testified.

DAILY DEALS.

One of the amusing incidents of the primary campaign thus far uncovered has been a story emanating from sources unaffiliated to Senator Penrose to the effect that a deal has been made between that astute politician and one E. V. Babcock of Pittsburgh whereby the latter engaged to pass the hat among the Western Pennsylvania manufacturers and raise a nifty campaign fund to be devoted to the renomination and reelection of Penrose to the Senate. In return for his activities in this behalf, Penrose is alleged to have pledged Babcock his support in the latter's campaign for Senator in 1916 to succeed George T. Oliver, who has announced that he will not seek reelection.

The barefoot organs of Fayette county exploit this story in order to denounce it as a "dirty deal." A bargain to exchange support in one thing in politics and in another in business is regarded as being necessarily criminal or even unworthy. The proposition to raise campaign funds in the same category. The law recognizes certain campaign expenses as legitimate. We can well understand why Western Pennsylvania manufacturers want to keep Penrose in the Senate, and why they are willing to subscribe to his campaign fund. Such a fund, no matter by whom raised, may not be expended in any other than a lawful manner without imminent danger of punishment. However, it has not been raised nor has it been unlawfully expended. Even the story of the deal remains unconfirmed. But assuming the tale to be true there is on its face nothing to warrant the assumption that the "deal" is "dirty."

The charge that Senator Penrose has promised the Senatorial nomination of 1916 to Babcock or anybody else will not be seriously considered because such a promise would be folly. For, as may have been pointed out, this is his to pledge as he sees fit; but it is not binding without the consent of the Republicans, and they will pass upon it at the polls where every Republican will have an equal voice.

But in any event the deal seems to be clean enough. It will certainly compare favorably with some that have been made closer at home. What are the Democratic Scribblers, Pharisees and Hypocrites kicking about, anyway?

REAL PROGRESSIVES.

The Greensburg Tribune pays the following tribute to the high character of Republicans honored and likely soon to be:

"It is fitting that Abraham Lincoln Keister, of Scotland, representative of the Westmoreland district in the lower House of Congress, should heartily endorse the platform of Martin G. Brumbaugh, Republican candidate for governor of this state. Brumbaugh and Keister are alike as two peas. Both have high ideas. Both are scrupulously clean in their lives and in their methods. Both are unswerving in their devotion to the public good and neither has ambition for public place other than for a wider field in which to demonstrate their unselfish devotion to their constituents."

Representative Keister should be returned to Congress in the Westmoreland-DuBois district. He is a representative business man, well-informed concerning the needs of his district and energetic and efficient in supplying them. He is a man of intelligence and education; and, above all, he is a staunch Republican, with all the political and personal virtues ever dreamed of in Progressive nominating circles.

There may be some Bull Moose objection to him, but Bull Moose politics are not progressive. They are the same old bossism, the same old graft, the same old business of personal promotion, the same old game of fooling the people, all in the name of Reform.

Unlabeled's fire loss is said to run over $130,000 with very inadequate insurance on the real estate destroyed. Insurance on realty in some parts of Fayette county is so extravagant that owners carry their own insurance. Sometimes they lose as they did in Unlabeled.

BOLTED LONG AGO.

The story of the party enrollment in Fayette county seems to have made the barefoot organs desirous of talking other things, and so the Unlabeled News Standard announces with large display that the New Castle Herald, "heretofore Republican, the leading daily of New Castle, bolts Penrose and will support A. Mitchell Palmer."

The Herald is not the leading newspaper of New Castle, neither is it a Republican paper. It has not been a Republican newspaper since it bolted the Republican nominee for Judge ten years ago and supported the Democratic nominee. It has been a Bull Moose organ ever since that faction was heard of. It has never been for Penrose for anything and cannot be any stretch of imagination be said to have "bolted" him in this primary campaign.

The News Standard will next be telling us that the Washington Observer has bolted Penrose.

UP TO THE COUNCIL.

The News thinks primary election day is a good time to vote on the proposed Conneltsville bond issue because everybody will be at the primary and there will be a full expression of opinion on the question. The expression should be free as well as full. Perhaps the most serious objection to the primary is the fact that it is nearly two months off. Conneltsville's financial rehabilitation should if possible be well on its way by that time. The Council, however, is content to abide by the decision of the Mayor and City Councilors who are evidently very earnest in their efforts to serve the best interests of the taxpayers.

OFF YEARS AND ON.

The Unlabeled News Standard (revised and reauthorized) wants to know where that great Republican enrollment was last November when "the Democrats carried Unlabeled, Conneltsville, South Brownsville and the county."

Last year was an odd-numbered year and consequently an off year in politics. In Pennsylvania none but local officers were chosen. The election involved no political issues. The electors voted their preferences rather than their politics. Nevertheless the Democrats didn't carry Conneltsville in 1913 and they won't carry it in 1914.

Now that Conneltsville has become a city the barbarous custom of moving April 1st should be abandoned. By common consent we should make the date a month later. This can be done through the real estate agencies. By united action they can bring this reform about, though it may take another year to do it.

The open front gas stove scares again.

The car and the rib occasionally relieve the roof fall in the work of piling up mine accidents in spite of the vigilance of the Safety First guard.

Butcher Villa seems to be the supreme commander of the Constitutionalist forces in Mexico. Where is Don Quixote Carranza?

Unlabeled's $120,000 fire caused the loss of a life. In Conneltsville one small gas stove took a similar toll of humanity. From women's dresses and children's clothes gas grates and gas stoves should be carefully screened. This particular kind of life insurance costs but a trifle and should not be neglected.

The fitting season is on.

The Courier is charged by the barefoot organs with being "offensively partisan." Just a few plain-articles. Wait until the fight is on.

We are reminded that gross weight adds materially to the high cost of living. There is no sustenance in the wrapper.

T. Roosevelt ran against something swifter than himself in the Brazilian country. To be sure it was only a river, but T. R. doesn't like to be beaten.

Unlabeled did not call on the Conneltsville fire department for assistance, but the telephone girls were glad to get help from this end of the line.

The City Beautiful movement will arrive next week. Let us hope that it will be Conneltsville's most successful spring opening.

The cleaning up of Conneltsville seems to include the bad dogs, too. Not a bad idea, either.

Unlabeled will put its fire hydrants in order now that the fire is over. When has Conneltsville's hydrants been inspected?

There will be many suggestions at the town meeting tonight. Some will be good, some bad and some indifferent, but "out of a multitude of counsels comes wisdom" and after the suggestion meeting the council will have a sifting meeting.

The Unlabeled News Standard has purchased several roomers and will henceforth specialize on the New Freedom while the unoccupied railroaders wander through the columns hither and yon.

The Unlabeled News Standard's new roomers are the strongest outward and visible sign of its Democracy thus far advanced.

THE TIGER.

By GEORGE FITCH,
Author of "At Good Old Slawh."

The tiger is a fierce and awful beast who lives in Asia and eats his food raw. This wouldn't be so bad if the tiger were particular about his food. But he isn't. He eats deer when he can get them and cattle at all seasons. But when other food is scarce, he eats farmers, travelers, qualified voters and other members of society. A tiger can eat a whole man at a meal and it is always meat time with him. To meet a large empty tiger in the jungle is almost as unpleasant as to be a Republican officeholder not under civil service in a Democratic administration.

"A tiger can eat a whole man at a meal and it is always meat time with him."

The tiger belongs to the cat family and acts like one. He is sometimes ten feet long over all and when he lashes his long tail and growls in a voice which sounds like a locust rubbing along a ship's side, he reduces the happiness in that vicinity to zero minus. He is yellow in color and is beautifully striped with large burnished and long dignified whiskers. But beauty lovers appreciate him more when he is belted with such steel bars. Only a few men have tried to tame the fierce and haughty tiger and they have only been partially recovered.

The tiger can leap immense distances with his fine coiling muscles and is so strong that he can kill a cow, fling her over his shoulder and gallop merrily off with the police department losing ground behind every shooting him in mid air as he leaps upon his enemy. Other men like to aeroplane upside down and to go through Niagara Rapids in a barrel. This world, in fact, is full of strange amusements.

TRADE INSURANCE

Advertising is trade insurance. It not only builds but conserves.

It creates good will, makes customers, and retains them.

It reduces the cost of doing business by increasing the volume—and in cutting the costs makes it possible to give greater advantages to the customers.

It is to the advantage of the buyer to trade with an advertised house because that concern is doing business with modern methods.

Read over the advertising in today's COURIER and it will be clear that the houses making their appeal for your patronage are the representative concerns of the community.

Think of the business in the same line that do not advertise—that is, if you can remember their name—and then do a little mental comparison.

It's not hard to see that the men who deserve your support are the men who are advertising and making good on their promises.

Tremendous Enthusiasm Among the Men and Solliciting Restrictions are Removed; High School Team Enters the Game With Vigor; Other Notes.

Special to The Courier.
SCOTTDALE, March 25.—The nine teams working on the $12,000 fund for furnishing and maintaining the new Y. M. C. A. building, had an additional team Tuesday evening at luncheon, and the whole campaign for $12,000 will be cleaned up tonight. In fact it looks as if it will go well toward $15,000 and be completed in two days less than the time assigned to the work.

The new team that went on was the high school team, captained by Frank Walker and including as members James Wilkey, J. R. Stauffer, John Gramer, George Fray, Edgar Kelly, Fred Collins, Harry Reed, J. O. Lambrey, Ralph Newburgh, William Miller, Eugene Perry and James Hutchison.

The lists were thrown open for today and all restrictions of cards held for special solicitation were thrown off, so that everyone can go in on their own hook with the result expected tonight of being something big when the teams meet to compare notes.

It was another lively luncheon time. The clock stood at 10:52.50 but when the teams were through the hand had almost reached the 12 o'clock point.

To the sum already secured was added $2,157.50, making the total on Tuesday night of $11,740.00.

Chairman Robert Perry and the executive committee were feeling good. Rev. J. C. Hutchison, of the Presbyterian Church, offered the blessing and another excellent supper was served by the Ladies' Auxiliary.

Following the meal, Chairman Perry called for the report of Division A. W. H. Glasgow, chairman, Captain M. D. Hoover, team No. 1, reported 10 subscriptions and $7,130; Captain C. Lee Mulligan, of team No. 2, reported nine subscriptions and $131; and Captain J. E. Timmerman, of team No. 3, reported six subscriptions and $160, a total for Division A of $112.

Division B, George C. Jarrett, chairman, reported, Captain D. H. Blower, of team No. 4, gave 10 subscriptions and $222; Captain J. S. Johnston, team No. 5, gave in 22 subscriptions and $130; and Captain F. E. Weddell, of team No. 6, gave in 19 subscriptions and $750, which caused renewed cheering. Captain Weddell told humorously how he had come home and found another team of another division had $100 for which his team had the card. "I went to them," he went on, "and made them cough up. Ask your division to get a good deal, but I couldn't stand to lose the hundred." Captain Blower bore the "100" pennant from his table to that of Captain Weddell. That division got the big haul, too.

Division C, Chairman J. T. Keithley reported, Captain W. L. Davis, team No. 7, reported 34 subscriptions and $201; Captain V. L. Schaffer, team No. 8, reported 20 subscriptions and $120; and Captain A. J. Skemp, team No. 9, reported 24 subscriptions and $200, a total for Division C of $521.

FACE COVERED WITH PIMPLES

Suffered Three Years. Used Resinol. Now Not A Pimple To Be Seen.

Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 27, 1912. "I had been troubled for the past three years with pimples which completely covered my face and neck. The pimples would come out, fever up, and cause me to pick at them, feeling very uncomfortable. I tried most all kinds of facial creams, but with no effect. I read a sample of Resinol Soap and Ointment and noticed instant relief. I bought Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment, and began the treatment. After using two jars of Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap, there was not a pimple to be seen, and now my face is as smooth as if there was never a pimple on it. SOME SUGGESTIONS FOR HOME-MADE HAT TRIMMINGS.

The various ornaments above have been gleaned from the displays of numerous fashionable shops and are the latest in hat trimmings. Can little buckle in the upper left corner consists of rows of colored beads strung closely and sewed to a shaped piece of white canvas. The center row was variegated with a row of white on either side, next a row of blue, another white, while the outer rows were red and the edge finished by a very narrow strip of white soutache. A shaped piece of black jar-pullin formed the little "tongue". On the ornament to the right of this is a tan velvet band held a "bow" formed of many blue, undyed and seal.

On the right hand to the lower left corner are shown modish adjustments of ribbon trimmings. Fruit is much used; the little apple, or whatever they may be, are made of different shades of velvet with velvet leaves. For the "stick-up" in the lower right hand corner, black jar-pullin has been laid in many places, tucked at the center and allowed to flare into little wheels which are placed atop of a stiff machine wrapped wire. The hat in the center is a new flat brimmed shape of Milan straw bound with pleated edged ribbon and crown and hem edged with white mulling. Applique daisies and leaves of velvet are laid about the crown.

Another three reel feature is "The Twin's Double." This drama is replete with strong situations and surprises.

MAY IRWIN.

May Irwin will appear at the Soisson Theatre, Thursday night, April 2 in a comedy that will reveal her wonderful talents as a fun-maker of very refined and artistic powers. Her play is the same that she appeared in for four months at George M. Cohan's Theatre in New York last season. It is described as a farcical comedy, entitled "The Widow by Proxy," and was written by Christine Chisholm. Critics have pronounced it as more substantial than others that have appeared in the play's history.

The story of the play revolves around Gloria Grey and Dolores Pennington. The latter is supposed to be the widow of Jonathan Pennington, who was thought to have been lost in Alaska. Before her marriage, she was an actress and her husband's family, which consisted of two old aunts, both family was worshippers. Dolores Pennington, who comes through the death-bed wish of an old uncle of her husband's, her signature is necessary to some papers in order that the estate may be divided, and she receives her husband's share. Dolores refuses to have anything to do with the money, but Gloria persuades her to allow her to impersonate the part of the Widow Pennington, and going to the home of the old aunts, she wins their favor, and whatever they may be, are made of Jonathan, falls in love with the woman he supposes is his cousin's widow. Just as they are about to be married, word is received that Jonathan is alive, and he returns home. Captain Pennington learns of the deception practiced, but he still loves Gloria and the show has a happy ending.

May Irwin is at the Soisson Theatre this week. Read the Pittsburgh papers.

"If the Wyandots join the other tribes it will mean war?"

"No," said the height and breadth of the frontiers, "but no force with which to meet them; the hundreds of lives—men, women and children—will be destroyed; settlements ruined. I doubt if there be a white man left north of the mountains. The Indians of these lands break loose. This is not my work, endeavoring to treat with those red devils. It is the duty of the governor. But St. Clair is away; I have no one to whom I can turn for information. The Wyandota demand instant reply, and our messenger must reach them as soon as, if not before, the return of thirty."

"Be it my choice of swords."

"Certainly."

"Then I will take Brady, sir."

"The best man available. I would have named him, only I feared your tale trouble had left you enfeebled."

"Who told you? General Harmar?"
"No less; maybe an hour ago."
"Not likely to be a pleasant task as I understand the nature of the message. What said the old man to you?"
"He sat up as I repeated word by word our conversation. He listened and waited until I finished, his eyes on the dark woods bordering the settlement."
"About as I had it," he commented gravely. "Only a bit more of detail. No pleasant job, friend, but the 'old man' has a right to know what we are doing with redskins. What was the name of that Wyandot medicine man?"
"Wapa-te-tu-lu."

"I've heard the name before, but don't know where. He never came up against the Wyandots, save a few at Vincennes; their range is too far north. By any chance do you know that country?"

"That beyond the forks. Here are some maps," said I, handing

I shook my head, wondering at his swift questioning.

"WHAT IS THIS AMERICA'S CUP?"

A Common Question Which Is Concisely Answered.

SOME FORGOTTEN HISTORY

Story of the Yacht Trophy Which America Captured Sixty Years Ago and Which Sir Thomas Lipton Again Aspires to Carry Away to England.

Now that the general public is beginning to take an interest in the preparations that are being made by Sir Thomas Lipton and of the three American syndicates for the big yacht race in September, the question is being frequently asked, "What is this America's cup anyway?"

To begin with, says Herbert Duckworth in the New York Sun, the cup was not originally wrested from the English in an international contest, as is commonly supposed. The year before the great London exhibition, in 1851, an English merchant suggested to some New York business men that a visit from one of the then famous American pilot boats would enhance the interest of the regatta during the exhibition year.

The invitation was brought to the notice of George L. Schuyler and John C. Stevens, the leading yachtmen at that time, with the result that William Brown, the principal ship builder in New York, undertook to build from the designs of his partner, George Stevens, for the sum of $30,000 a schooner of not less than 140 tons, which he guaranteed would beat any craft of her size in America and England, the purchasers to have the right of rejecting her in the event of her defeat.

The First Race.
Brown's offer was taken up, and so the America was built. On June 20, 1851, the America sailed for the other side. The very day she reached the Solent she soundly beat the British yacht favorite in a little friendly race of about six miles to Cowes, and the British yachtmen became so scared that for a time no owner could be induced to tackle the redoubtable Yankee.

After issuing an abortive challenge to race the America against any British yacht of any rig for any sum up to $50,000 Commodore Stevens, in despair of arranging anything in the nature of an international contest, entered the schooner for the Royal Yacht Squadron regatta of Aug. 22, the prize being a cup of the value of $500 presented by the club.

The course was around the Isle of Wight, and the result was a walkover for the America. Out of a fleet of fourteen Heligoland yachts the only one to show any speed at all was the Aurora, which finished second, twenty-four minutes behind the America.

Near the Needles the America passed and saluted the royal yacht Victoria and Albert, in which Queen Victoria had come down to meet the yacht. The story is told that the queen asked the signman of the royal yacht whether the racing vessels were in sight and, receiving a reply to the affirmative inquired:

"Which is first?"
"The America," was the answer.
"And which is second?"
"Your majesty, there is no second."

An Unavailing Protest.
After the race the owner of the Britannia lodged a protest against the American on the score that she had failed to round the Nab light vessel, but as the sailing instructions supplied to the modern yachts did not mention the Nab as a mark of the course the protest was not upheld by the committee. And so the cup, which was destined to become the most famous trophy in the realm of sports, was brought over here and for more than sixty years has defied all attempts at recapture.

INDIAN ROAD BUILDERS.

Redskins to Do Mile Stretch of the Lincoln Highway.

Indians will build a mile of the proposed trans-continental Lincoln highway, according to the plan of L. R. Creel, Indian agent, who has charge of the Indians and Indian farm in the center of Skull Valley, Utah. Mr. Creel said:

"Now that the Lincoln highway has been designated through the Indian farm, I intend to build a mile of model highway across this property. The Indians are far from being good automobilists, but by the time the spring travel starts next spring, I will be the best mile of road between Lake and Sky. Now I was surprised at the travel over the farm last year by automobile, and this gave me the idea of having this part of the route. We can have the Indians out there build the road and I believe it will be the only of the Lincoln highway from coast to coast which will be built by labor."

A Solemn Critic.

WHERE HISTORY IS LAME.

Benefactors of the Human Race Who Get Too Little Credit.

History as it is written and as it is taught is one great panorama of wars and dynasties. It bristles with the names of doughty warriors and rulers, describes at length their struggles and achievements and dismisses the inventors and promoters of the great agencies which have made modern civilization possible, with scanty, if any, mention.

The invention of printing has had more influence upon the development of the race than any act of any ruler that the world has ever known, and more than half of those who read this will not know the inventor's name.

The men who invented and developed the steam engine did more to lighten human toil and to make possible to each of the dwellers upon earth a larger measure of comfort and enjoyment than all the generals who ever pitted men against their fellows. Hunt for their names in the indexes of your histories.

Art and literature have been broad highways to fame. The high school scholar can tell you who wrote what and when he wrote it, but ask him who built the first railroad in America and when and where it was. The magnificent Albert memorial is covered with the names of authors and painters and sculptors, but Michelangelo is there because he was an artist, not because he was an architect, and Leonardo Da Vinci because he was a painter and not because he was an engineer.—Power.

Milady's Complexion Vell.
The vell with beauty spots has come up again, but with a difference. The spots are kept in a box on the toilet table and stuck on after the vell has been adjusted.

The wearer selects her prettiest feature—or what she regards as such—takes up a spot and after having deliberately considered it places it in such a position as to attract the eye of the spectator to the feature in question. It may be a dainty nose. It may be a charming mouth or pretty teeth. But usually it is the eyes that are indicated as pre-eminent worthy of attention.

Most of us have noticed how very becoming foggy weather is to the complexion. This has given rise to the fog vell, gray tulle lined with palest flesh pink, and it is one of the successes of the season.

Calling on a friend one day, the wearer of one of these replied to the admiring remark of her friend: "Oh it is my fog vell! I am not really looking a bit nice. See?" And she raised the vell.

The difference was so great that the friend was taken aback. She really did not know what to say, for the difference was indeed great. It was astounding. But then what beautiful sincerity and frankness on the part of the owner of the vell! These were better a thousand times than the most radiant of complexions.

Melba's Pullman Porter Critic.

One American experience recalls to me at the moment I had been appearing in "Faust," at Washington and, sitting into the train after the performance rather tired, was not un-naturally annoyed at finding my state-room unprepared. I called the colored attendant, who kept me waiting a long time before he condescended to appear.

"Why is my berth not ready?" I began.

He looked me up and down indifferently.

"I saw you play Margaret (Marguerite this mornin'," he said defiantly. "and I thought you weren't a bit good. You'll hev to wait. But Plan Kon (Plan Kon was fine," he added as an afterthought.

Two years afterward I received a letter from this same ebony critic. "I heard you last night as Mignon Leconte," it ran, "and it was real fine. You bent the hand. I take it all back!" —Mme. Melba in Strand Magazine.

Try It on the Cog.

The farmer looked at the stranger and shook his head.

"What d'ye call yourself?" he asked.

"The Orpheus of the baryard," replied the caller.

"What'n Tophet is that?" demanded the agriculturist.

The stranger smiled.

"A college professor has declared that hens will not lay at certain seasons unless they are warmed by the man who sits on a barnyard fence and amuses them. See, here is my mouth organ, and here is my tambourine. I play and sing and crack jokes until the hens roll over in sheer delight—and all for 50 cents an hour."

The farmer eyed him moodily.

"I wonder," he said, "how your talents would impress the dog? Here Rover!" —Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Got the Best of Carlyle.

The Rev. Thomas Alexander, a Presbyterian minister, long resident in Chelsea and well known as a brother Scot, was most anxious to know Carlyle, but had no opportunity of getting an introduction to him. One day in the King's road he saw Carlyle coming in his direction and took advantage of the opportunity by going up to the sage and saying, "Thomas Carlyle, I believe?" Carlyle's reply was, "Tom Alexander, I know!" They became good friends, and later Mr. Alexander wrote to Carlyle for a subscription toward a school building fund, and Carlyle wrote back a refusal in doggerel.

Whereupon Mr. Alexander replied that if he did not send him $5 he would sell his poetry to a collector or publisher. The $5 was at once forthcoming.

QUAINT CREPE FROCK.

This girlish frock of figured cotton crepe is reminiscent of our grandmothers. A flange of the material drapes the shoulders and this about the waist. It is gathered at the shoulder seam and edged with a ruffle of fine lace. A double patch held by a band of black velvet finishes the elbow sleeves. The bottom line of the skirt is slightly ruffled at the front and marked by a band of narrow lace. This is an excellent model for a washable frock, as the fabric may be ironed flat and the skirt is straight and simple.
